

Eric Addison Negri

Associate

Eric Negri is an associate in the firm's litigation group and handles complex commercial litigation matters in both federal and state court.

Eric has experience in all stages of commercial litigation in multiple practice areas, including contract, commercial landlord/tenant disputes, and construction matters. He regularly collaborates with his colleagues in a team environment to achieve optimal outcomes for his clients.

Prior to joining Norris McLaughlin, Eric was a litigation associate at a mid-sized New Jersey law firm.

Eric earned his J.D. from the Georgetown University Law Center and received both his M.A. and B.A. in Criminal Justice from Stockton University. While attending law school, he was a law clerk with the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia. After graduating law school, Eric served as an Assistant Public Defender in the Office of the Public Defender in the 9th Judicial Circuit in Florida.
